

Every gate is fail-closed and pre-registered: any guard failure stops the route and records a bounded verdict; no training, distributed runtime or eval is authorized until the final gate completes.